

Board Games (K-2, 6-8, 9-12)

This one session program will allow students to unwind after a long day of academics and tutoring. Several options for board games and puzzles will be available. The games vary based on the teacher running the program.

Brain Games (3-5, 6-8)

This one session program will challenge students to solve brain puzzles. Some examples would be hangman, tic tac toe, and other brain games suited to the age level of the students.

Card Games (9-12)

This one session program will allow students to unwind after a long day of academics and tutoring. Students will be taught the rules to several card games and get practice playing them.

Card Making (K-2)

This one session program will allow students make Christmas/Holiday cards for their family members prior to winter break. Students will have the opportunity to make cards for as many family members as they would like.

Computer Programming/Video Game Design (6-8, 9-12)

This one session program will use games and other methods to teach students to do basic computer programming. They will also get experience designing video games.

Craft Club (K-2, 3-5, 6-8)

This one to five session program will allow participants to use art skills to create practical and impractical objects as time allows. As a class, students will relax and enjoy art at the end of a busy day. The projects will be taken home that day, or if an extended project is given, when the project is completed.

Crochet/Sewing Club (9-12)

This one session program will introduce students to the art of crocheting and sewing. Students will be able to choose projects to complete, and the amount/type of projects completed depends on each individual student.

Fall Sports Club (3-5)

This one session program will focus on the basics of fall sports such as kick ball, dodge ball, volleyball, etc. As time allows, each game will have the rules explained, students will learn the basics and then play the game.

Fitness Club (3-5)

This one session program will focus on incorporating fitness into our daily routines. Students will learn to proper way to stretch and participate in activities such as walking and running while keeping track of the steps that they are taking using pedometers.

Language Club (9-12)

This four session program will introduce students to the basics of Spanish, or if the student is currently enrolled in Spanish, will work on skills being taught in the classroom. Instilling an appreciation for the language is a main goal of this program.

Lego Building (K-2)

This one session program will allow students to put together purchased Lego kits each week. Several options are available for boys and girls alike.

Let's Get Creative (3-5; 6-8)

This one session program will let students express their creativity through art projects of multiple types.

Old into New (3-5)

This one session program will teach students how to create works of art using recycled materials as well as art materials.

Rocket Reporters (3-5)

This one session program will allow students to research topics, write articles, and take pictures to be used for producing an elementary newsletter that will be printed and distributed at the end of the session.

Service Learning (3-5)

This one session program will focus on student communication with local nursing homes. Students will make cards and small projects for the residents of the nursing homes, and then take at least one trip to spend time with residents and deliver their creations.

Science Club (K-2, 6-8 and 9-12)

This one session program will focus on different branches of science using STEM and hands on lab activities to spark students' interest in science.

Scrapbooking (6-8)

This one session program allows students to use cameras to take photos and then print them out for immediate use in a school themed scrapbook. If a student is interested in bringing their own 4x6 photos for a scrapbook, that is permitted. The layout pages and books will still be provided.

Spring Sports Club (3-5, 9-12)

This one session program will focus on the basics of spring sports such as softball, baseball, etc. As time allows, each game will have the rules explained, students will learn the basics and then play the game.

Winter Sports Club (3-5, 5-8)

This one session program will focus on the basics of winter sports such as basketball. As time allows, each game will have the rules explained, students will learn the basics and then play the game.

Yoga (K-2, 6-8)

This one session program will focus on the basics of yoga. Students will be taught the poses that are age appropriate and that will aid in relaxation after a long day of academics and tutoring.