Social Studies News

Mid-October 2019

Message From The Teacher

Hello!! We have been learning so much in Social Studies classes, thus far. We have immersed ourselves in our Interactive Notebooks, and have been working to achieve Mastery of the standards that have been introduced. The end of the first quarter is quickly approaching, and with it, Student Led Conferences. If you are able, please plan to attend. It is a wonderful opportunity for your child to showcase his/her learning this year.

Did You Know?

- ✓ On November 8, 2019, Conotton Valley will celebrate our local veterans with the annual Veterans Day Assembly. Breakfast will be served at 8:15AM for veterans and their spouses, with the program beginning at 9:00 AM.
- ✓ Veterans Day is a federal holiday, celebrated on November 11 to honor military veterans of the United States Armed Forces.

What's Coming Up

- ✓ October 11 - No School (Teacher PD)
- ✓ October 25 - End of 1st Quarter
- ✓ November 1 - Student Led Conferences (8AM-8PM)

What We're Doing

- 8th Grade Social Studies - 8th Graders have been studying the culture, society, and early government of the American colonies. They are beginning to see unrest in the colonies and revolution is on the horizon!
- American History - Our American History students are studying the Industrial period in the United States and the way industry impacted our society. In the coming weeks, they will be studying how America became a world power.
- United States Government - The Government students have studied the foundational principles of our United States Constitution, and will be more closely studying our Legislative Branch.
